Scope and Content Note

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle was published from 1841 to 1955, then revived for a short time from 1960 to 1963. The Eagle photography collection at Brooklyn Public Library is drawn from the second half of the Eagle's lifespan, covering a period from, roughly, 1900 to 1955. Although the Brooklyn Eagle is not remembered for the strides it made in terms of its photography the paper did generate over 230,000 photographs. Approximately 35,000 newspaper photographs of Brooklyn and its surroundings have been processed into the Photographs from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle – Brooklyn Subjects collection. Subject areas include neighborhoods, schools, business and industry, churches, parks, and government, plus many, many more. Descriptive information and thumbnails of these images can be accessed by the public via our online catalog, and the process of cataloging and digitizing of these images is ongoing.

Additions and adjustments to this finding aid will be made as the processing project continues.

Restrictions

Access Restrictions

Photographs from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle – Brooklyn Subjects collection is located in the Brooklyn Collection at the Central Branch at Grand Army Plaza. The collection may only be used in the library and is not available through interlibrary loan. Requests to view folders of images from the collection must be made at least 48 hours in advance of visit.

Use Restrictions

While many items in the Brooklyn Collection are unrestricted, we do not own reproduction rights to all materials. Be aware of the several kinds of rights that might apply: copyright, licensing and trademarks. The borrower assumes all responsibility for copyright questions.

Related Materials

Photographs from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle Morgue: This collection comprises 35,000+ photograph files containing approximately 200,000 images from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle newspaper that have not yet been processed and cataloged into the Brooklyn Collection's photography files. They cover a broad range of topics, from local Brooklyn features to national and global news. Users may want to search this collection for topics that aren't represented in the Historic Brooklyn Photographs from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle collection.

Brooklyn Public Library catalog. Thousands of images from this collection and many others may be found in our online catalog. From the main catalog page, click on "Advanced Search". From there, click on the "Material Type" drop-down menu and choose "Photograph". Then enter any keyword term into the search bar.

Arrangement

The folders are arranged alphabetically by subject, with each sub-category of a subject separated by colons. Individuals are typically listed last name first under the Portraits subject heading, but may appear under other subject areas as well (i.e., Sports: Baseball: Dodgers: Jackie Robinson). For those searching for images on a specific topic or event, it is advised to try several topics related to that subject, including personal names, neighborhood or street name, organization name, and general keyword, to ensure a more comprehensive search. Because the list is very long, you may want to use the "find" feature in your PDF reader to skip to relevant terms. If you don't find a subject or person you are looking for, you may want to also consult the Photographs from the *Brooklyn Daily Eagle Morgue collection (see Related Materials note, above).
